TUMACACORI MISSION, NATIONAL MONUMENT, ARIZONA

Established in 1690 by the Jesuit priest, Father Kino, the ruins of this structure show Spanish influence characteristic of all missions built throughout the Southwest and is a mute tribute to the thorough vandalism of the Apache Indians. You should see this old structure of rugged beauty.

Dear Janet:

You may have heard my news from home by now. On my way to Calif. "points west." How about some ideas for a graduate present? Meanwhile, good luck. We'll write more later. Til then, aloha. Love
